THE SCHRATT REWARD.

The case of Shuey, executor, vs. The United States, an appeal from the Court of Chaims, was heard in the Supreme Court of Chaims, was the claim of St. Marie for $15,000, the alleged balance due him for the discovery and apprehension of John H. Surratt, under the proclamation, of Secretary Stanton of April 20, 1856, offering a reward of $25,000 for his apprehension. The Court was decided that St. Marie's services did not hit of an arrest of Surratt, within the meaning of the proclamation, but was merely the giving of information which conduced to the arrest, and that for such information the sum of $10,000, allowed him under act of Congress, was a full exhistantion, and discharges the United States from all liability. It is here conlended that the proclamation was a special contract made upon the credit and responsibility of the Government, and that the assent of St. Marie, by his action, made it a binding obligation on the Government, and that it was not necessary that he should have taken Surratt into manual custody to entitle him to the reward; that he apprehended him within the letter and spirit of the proclamation, and could have done nothing more than to point him out to the authorities. William H. Barnes, false pretenses, plead guilty. Sentence was suspended, and the party discharged from custody on his own recognizance in the sum of $4,000.

Another case against this person for the same cause was noile presequied by the District Attorney. Another case against this person for the same, cause was noile presequied by the District Atterney.

Lemuel Makel, rape on Mary Ellen Stowe, was continued from Thursday. When a motion was made for a new trial in this case, affidavits of some half a dozen persons were presented to shew that new and important evidence had been discovered for the defense, and the Judge granted the motion. Yesteriay in the progress of the case thedefense placed some of the witnesses on the stand who had made these declarations under outh regarded as new evidence. The District Attorney held the affidavits, and the testimony was at such a variance from the sworn papers as to show that these parties had fried to patch up a defense. This fact was so evident to his Hodor that he not only ordered the witnesses from off the stand, but one of them, William Hamilton, was immediately put under arrest on the charge of perjury. The jury returned a verdict of acquittal, and the defendant was discharged.

Jack Williams, alias Richard Williams, colored, murder. On the 13th of April, 1874, Jack Williams was one of a fishing gang working on the Giesboro' shore, and on the night above-mentioned got into a dispute with Francis Luckett, and in the heat of passion struck him across the left side and upper portion of the head with a spade. The injured man lived until the 19th of May and then died from the effects of the wounds received. The case was postponed until Monday. James Thompson, alias Frank C.
